

CATHEDRAL'S F5 MOVES UP A GEAR

Fri 1 February 2013

CAPTION: Goulburn Mayor Geoff Kettle (left), local real estate agent Peter Mylonas and Archdeacon John Barnes at the F5 afternoon church service at St Saviour's Cathedral.

In Goulburn lies a magnificent place of worship – our Anglican Cathedral. This beautiful space is a testament to the incredible faith in Christ of many generations of local families.

But this building is not merely a place of rich history. The Cathedral will play host to a range of exciting ministry initiatives as part of the Diocese's 150th celebrations. Not least are the upcoming outreach activities associated with a Sunday afternoon, family-friendly initiative called F5. The new congregation is led by Archdeacon Caroline Campbell; Canon Paul and Mrs Robyn Baxter and the Bishop of Canberra and Goulburn Stuart Robinson, and his wife Jane.

On Sunday March 3, 2013 at 5pm there will be a free BBQ on the lawns of the Cathedral followed by a treasure hunt and other activities for the young and young at heart. This is an outreach event run by Diploma of Anglican Orders students from St Marks National Theological Centre as part of their preparation for ministry.

"If you haven't been to the Cathedral for a while this is a wonderful opportunity to revisit or, indeed, to experience it for the first time," said the Dean, Phillip Saunders.

"Come along and bring your friends and family. All are warmly welcome."

At 6pm there will be a praise service led by Bishop Stuart and everyone is invited to encounter the Living Lord at the Cathedral.

"Jesus Christ is as alive today as he was when this Cathedral was built", Bishop Stuart said. "The love of our Lord is unending and He longs to touch our hearts each and every day. My dream is that all people may experience this love and place the Lord at the centre of their lives."
