DIOCESE OF CANBERRA AND GOULBURN

CATHEDRAL ORDINANCE 1996

AN ORDINANCE

To provide for the governance of the Cathedral of St Saviour, Goulburn and the Cathedral Parish of St Saviour, to make consequential amendments to the Election of Canons Ordinance 1975 and for other purposes.

The Synod of the Diocese of Canberra and Goulburn enacts:

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY

1. Short title

1.1 This Ordinance is the Cathedral Ordinance 1996.²

2. Preface

2.1 Synod acknowledges the dual role of the Cathedral Church of St Saviour as a focus of diocesan life and as the parish church of the Cathedral Parish of St Saviour.

2.2 The Synod also acknowledges that the Cathedral is a part of the civic heritage of the City of Goulburn.

2.3 The Synod seeks that the Cathedral should be:

- (a) a resource of spirituality and a place of gathering for the whole of the Diocese; and
- (b) a centre of Christian witness in the City of Goulburn and a place where Church and City may meet together to share in the things of God; and
- (c) a house of worship to strengthen the spiritual life of the Cathedral Parish and where individuals may find the power of the Holy Spirit.

2.4 Synod intends that the structure of governance of the Cathedral and the Cathedral Parish established by this Ordinance is to operate in such a way as will best achieve these objectives.

2.5 The Chapter, which represents the Diocese, and the Council, which is the parish council of the Cathedral Parish, share the governance of the Cathedral in accordance with this Ordinance.

3. Dictionary

3.1 In this Ordinance ‘the Governance Ordinance’ means the Governance of the Diocese Ordinance 2000 as amended³;

² Amended by Cathedral Amendment Ordinance 2006

³ Amended by Schedule 11 of the Governance of the Diocese Ordinance 2000

- 3.2 A reference to a section of the Governance Ordinance is a reference to that section of the Governance Ordinance as applied to the Cathedral Parish by this Ordinance.⁴
- 3.3 Other terms in the Ordinance are defined in Schedule 1.

PART 2 – RIGHTS OF THE BISHOP

4. Bishop to have use of the Cathedral for Episcopal and Diocesan purposes

- 4.1 The Bishop is entitled to use the Cathedral for any purpose in connection with his or her office.
- 4.2 The Bishop may, after due notice to the Dean:
- (a) take such part in any service of worship held in the Cathedral as the Bishop specifies; and
 - (b) preach, or appoint a preacher to preach, at any such service.
- 4.3 The Bishop may arrange, at such times as the Bishop considers appropriate and after due notice to the Dean, for the holding of diocesan and other special services in the Cathedral.
- 4.4 So long as section 4 of the Cathedral Ordinance 1894 remains in force, the Bishop has the rights conferred by that section.
- 4.5 It is the intention of the Synod that the rights conferred by this section should not be limited in any way by the rights conferred by section 4 of the Cathedral Ordinance 1894.

PART 3 – THE CHAPTER

5. The constitution of the Chapter

- 5.1 The Chapter comprises:
- (a) the Bishop; and
 - (b) the Dean; and
 - (c) Sub Dean; and⁵
 - (d) the Assistant Bishop or Assistant Bishops; and
 - (e) the Archdeacons; and
 - (f) the Canons; and
 - (g) the churchwardens of the Cathedral Parish.

6. President of the Chapter

- 6.1 The Bishop is the president of the Chapter.
- 6.2 When the Bishop is absent from a meeting of the Chapter the Dean presides at the meeting.

⁴ Amended by Cathedral Amendment Ordinance 2006

⁵ Inserted by Cathedral (Amendment) Ordinance 2010

6.3 If both the Bishop and the Dean are absent from a meeting of the Chapter, a member of the Chapter appointed by the Bishop as acting President presides at the meeting.

7. Meetings of the Chapter

7.1 The Dean convenes meetings of the Chapter in consultation with the Bishop.

7.2 The Dean must convene a meeting of the Chapter at least once each year.

8. Quorum

A quorum for a meeting of the Chapter is 7 members.

9. Functions of the Chapter

9.1 So long as section 5 of the Cathedral Ordinance 1894 remains in force the Chapter is, in accordance with that section, responsible for the general management and government of the Cathedral in all matters relating to its religious and ecclesiastical affairs.

9.2 The Chapter has, in addition to the function referred to in subsection 9.1, the following functions:

- (a) to be available to the Bishop for consultation and advice; and
- (b) to develop and foster the ministry of the Cathedral to the Diocese and to the City of Goulburn; and
- (c) to facilitate the role of the Cathedral as a place of gathering for the parishes and people of the Diocese; and
- (d) to promote and safeguard the function of the Cathedral as the parish church of the Cathedral Parish; and
- (e) to consult with the Council in respect of:
 - (i) any alterations or additions to the Cathedral building or of other buildings ancillary to the Cathedral; or
 - (ii) the erection of new buildings for the purposes of the Cathedral; and
- (f) to consult with the Council concerning the development of the grounds of the Cathedral and of any land held in trust for the use and benefit of the Cathedral; and
- (g) to advise, in conjunction with the Council, the Bishop-in-Council:
 - (i) on the state of the fabric of the Cathedral or of other buildings ancillary to the Cathedral; or
 - (ii) on any proposals for altering or extending the Cathedral or ancillary buildings or for erecting new buildings for the purposes of the Cathedral.

10. Powers of the Chapter

10.1 The Chapter has such powers as are required for, or are incidental to, the performance of its functions.

PART 4 – THE CATHEDRAL COUNCIL

11. The constitution of the Cathedral Council

11.1 The Council is constituted in accordance with this Ordinance.

11.2 The Council is the Ministry Unit Council for the Cathedral Parish for the purposes of the Governance Ordinance.⁶

11.3 The Council consists of:

- (a) the Dean; and
- (b) any stipendiary assistant priest of the Cathedral Parish; and⁷
- (c) any stipendiary deacon of the Cathedral Parish; and
- (d) the churchwardens of the Cathedral; and
- (e) if another congregation worships regularly in the Cathedral Parish, such number of the churchwardens of that other congregation as is determined by the annual electoral meeting of the Cathedral Parish; and
- (f) 3, 6, 9 or 12 other persons, as is resolved at the annual electoral meeting of the Cathedral Parish.

11.4 Of the persons referred to in paragraph 11.3(f), the Dean appoints one-third and the annual electoral meeting of the Cathedral Parish elects two-thirds in accordance with the requirements of Schedule 7, clause 1 of the Governance Ordinance.⁸

12. Functions of the Council

12.1 So long as section 6 of the Cathedral Ordinance 1894 remains in force, the Council is, in accordance with that section, responsible for the general management of the financial affairs of the Cathedral and of the Cathedral Parish.

12.2 Subject to the responsibility and functions of the Chapter referred to in section 9, the Council has, in relation to the Cathedral Parish and to the Cathedral, buildings ancillary to the Cathedral and the Cathedral grounds, all of the functions and duties of a ministry council under sections 36 and 37 and Schedule 7 of the Governance Ordinance, where these provisions are not inconsistent with this Ordinance.⁹

13. Relation between the Chapter and the Council

13.1 The Chapter may, in writing, delegate to the Council any or all of its functions referred to in section 9.

13.2 The delegation of a function by the Chapter does not prevent the Chapter from exercising that function.

13.3 In the event of any question arising whether a particular matter is within the functions of the Chapter or of the Council, the Dean must refer the issue to the Bishop.

13.4 The decision of the Bishop on the issue is final and binding on the Chapter and the Council.

⁶ Amended by Schedule 11 of the Governance of the Diocese Ordinance 2000

⁷ Amended by Schedule 11 of the Governance of the Diocese Ordinance 2000

⁸ Amended by Schedule 11 of the Governance of the Diocese Ordinance 2000

⁹ Amended by Schedule 11 of the Governance of the Diocese Ordinance 2000

PART 5 – THE DEAN AND CATHEDRAL MINISTERS¹⁰

14. The Dean

- 14.1 The Bishop, with the approval of the Chapter, appoints the Dean.
- 14.2 The Dean is the incumbent of the Cathedral Parish and the priest of the Cathedral Parish for the purposes of the Governance Ordinance.¹¹
- 14.3 The Bishop may appoint a priest to act as Dean during any period when—
- (a) the office is vacant; or
 - (b) the holder of the office is:
 - (i) absent from the Cathedral Parish; or
 - (ii) otherwise unable to carry out the functions of the office.
- 14.4 A priest appointed to act as Dean has all of the powers and functions of the Dean.
- 14.5 The office of Dean becomes vacant if the Dean:
- (a) submits a written resignation to the Bishop; or
 - (b) ceases to hold a licence from the Bishop to perform the functions of the office; or
 - (c) ceases to be the incumbent of the Cathedral Parish; or
 - (d) dies.
- 14.6 If the Bishop does not appoint a priest to act as Dean under subsection 14.3 during the period referred to in that subsection:
- (a) the Bishop may appoint a priest to perform the functions of the incumbent of the Cathedral Parish; and
 - (b) the Bishop otherwise has all the powers and functions of the Dean.
- 14.7 The Dean, after consultation with the Council, may appoint a Cathedral organist, a Cathedral choir director and members of the Cathedral choir.

14AA. Sub Dean¹²

- 14AA.1 The Bishop, on the nomination of the Dean, may appoint a Sub Dean
- 14AA.2 The appointment shall be on such terms and conditions as may be agreed between the Sub Dean and the Dean and approved by the Chapter, and shall be within the approved budget of the Cathedral Parish
- 14AA.3 Subject to the approval of the Dean, the Sub Dean shall carry out such duties as may be directed by the Dean in accordance with guidelines laid down from time to time by the Chapter of the Cathedral.”

14A. Canons in Residence¹³

- 14A.1 The Bishop, on the nomination of the Dean, may appoint as Canons in Residence up to four persons who are, in the opinion of the Dean, suitably experienced

¹³ Inserted by Cathedral Amendment Ordinance 2006

14A.2 The appointment shall be on such terms and conditions as may be agreed between the Canon in Residence and the Dean and approved by the Chapter, and shall be within the approved budget of the Cathedral Parish

14A.3 Subject to the approval of the Dean, a Canon in Residence shall reside in Goulburn in the State of New South Wales during the period of appointment and shall carry out such duties as may be directed by the Dean.

PART 6 – THE CHURCHWARDENS

15. Churchwardens

15.1 There are 4 churchwardens of the Cathedral Parish, of whom:

- (a) 1 churchwarden is appointed by the Dean; and
- (b) 1 churchwarden is appointed by the Bishop; and
- (c) 2 churchwardens are elected at the annual electoral meeting of the Cathedral Parish.¹⁴

15.2 The appointment and election of churchwardens by the Dean and the annual electoral meeting respectively are to be made in accordance with the provisions of the Governance Ordinance for the appointment and election of churchwardens.¹⁵

15.3 The churchwarden appointed by the Bishop holds office for the same period as the churchwarden appointed by the Dean.

15.4 The Bishop may fill, at any time, a vacancy in the office of churchwarden appointed by the Bishop.

15.5 The churchwardens appointed or elected in accordance with this section have, subject to this Ordinance, all of the powers and functions of the churchwardens under the Governance Ordinance.¹⁶

PART 7 – THE CANONS

16. Appointment of Canons

16.1 There shall be not more than 8 Canons who are to be appointed or elected in accordance with this section.

16.2 Of the 8 Canons, 4 must be persons in priest's orders (the clerical Canons) and 4 must be lay persons (the lay Canons).

16.3 The Bishop appoints 2 clerical canons and 2 lay Canons and the Synod elects 2 clerical canons and 2 lay Canons.

16.4 A priest is not eligible to be appointed or elected as a Canon unless he or she:

- (a) has been in priest's orders for not less than 3 years; and
- (b) is resident within the Diocese; and
- (c) is licensed by the Bishop to an appointment in the Diocese.

16.5 Is a parishioner of a parish or Ministry Unit for the purposes of the Governance Ordinance¹⁷

¹⁴ Amended by Cathedral Amendment Ordinance 2006

¹⁵ Amended by Cathedral Amendment Ordinance 2006

¹⁶ Amended by Cathedral Amendment Ordinance 2006

¹⁷ Amended by Schedule 11 of the Governance of the Diocese Ordinance 2000

16.6 A lay person appointed or elected as a Canon holds office, subject to subsection 17.2, until the commencement of the first session of the second Synod next following his or her appointment or election.

17. When a canonry becomes vacant

17.1 A canonry occupied by a priest becomes vacant if the Canon:

- (a) tenders a written resignation to the Bishop; or
- (b) ceases to hold the office in accordance with the Retirement Age Ordinance 1970; or
- (c) dies; or
- (d) is appointed to another office in the Diocese by virtue of which he or she is a member of the Chapter; or
- (e) is absent from the Diocese for more than 3 consecutive months without the permission of the Bishop; or
- (f) ceases to be eligible to be appointed or elected as a Canon under subsection 16.4.

17.2 A canonry occupied by a lay person becomes vacant if the Canon:

- (a) tenders a written resignation to the Bishop; or
- (b) dies; or
- (c) ceases to be eligible to be appointed or elected as a Canon under subsection 16.5.

18. Installation of canons

18.1 A Canon, before being installed by the Dean in his or her allotted seat in the Cathedral, must make the following declaration:

"I,, do solemnly promise that I will duly observe all Ordinances and Rules pertaining to this Cathedral Church."

19. Canons Emeritus

19.1 This section applies to a clerical Canon who ceases to hold an appointment within the Diocese in accordance with the Retirement Age Ordinance 1970.

19.2 The Bishop-in-Council may approve that a clerical Canon to whom this section applies retain the title and precedence, but not the powers or functions, of a Canon.

PART 8 – HONORARY LAY CANONS OF THE CATHEDRAL

20. Office of Honorary Lay Canon

20.1 The title of Honorary Lay Canon of the Cathedral is an honour to be conferred on lay persons in the Diocese in recognition of outstanding service to the Church in the Diocese.

20.2 The Bishop may confer the title of Honorary Lay Canon of the Cathedral on such lay persons as the Bishop thinks fit.

20.3 The Bishop may not confer the title upon more than 3 persons in any one calendar year.

20.4 An Honorary Lay Canon is entitled to such privileges as are determined by the Bishop in consultation with the Dean, but is not a member of the Chapter and is not required to take an active role in the governance of the Cathedral.

PART 9 – FINANCES OF THE CATHEDRAL

21. Moneys of the Cathedral and the Cathedral Parish

21.1 The revenues of the Cathedral must be applied in accordance with sections 8 and 69 of the Cathedral Ordinance, 1894 while those sections remain in force.

21.2 Subject to subsection 21.1, the moneys of the Cathedral and the Cathedral Parish must be applied in accordance with any relevant trust and the provisions of the Governance Ordinance so far as they are applicable and of any other relevant ordinance.¹⁸

22. Diocesan subvention to meet Cathedral costs.

22.1 The Diocese must meet a proportionate part of the running costs of the Cathedral.

22.2 The annual budget of the Diocese must provide for the diocesan share of the running costs of the Cathedral determined in accordance with this section.

22.3 For the purposes of this section, the running costs of the Cathedral are the costs of:

- (a) lighting and heating of the Cathedral and ancillary buildings; and
- (b) premiums of insurance relating to the Cathedral and ancillary buildings; and
- (c) the maintenance and repair of the Cathedral, ancillary buildings and the Cathedral grounds; and
- (d) rates and taxes (if any) payable in respect of land occupied by the Cathedral, ancillary buildings and the Cathedral grounds.

22.4 The proportionate part of the running costs to be paid by the Diocese is determined by Bishop-in-Council after consultation with the Cathedral Council, having regard to:

- (a) the amount that would be reasonably attributable to the cost of operating and maintaining church buildings, ancillary buildings and grounds of a size appropriate to the Cathedral Parish; and
- (b) the revenues of the Cathedral, including the income of any trusts for the purposes of the Cathedral: and
- (c) the revenue generated by the use of the Cathedral for diocesan purposes.

PART 10 – APPLICATION OF OTHER ORDINANCES

23. Application of Governance Ordinance to Cathedral Parish

23.1 Except as mentioned in subsections 23.2 and 23.3, the provisions of the Governance Ordinance apply to and in relation to the Cathedral Parish.^{19,20}

23.2 The provisions of Part 5 of the Governance Ordinance apply to the Cathedral Parish only to the extent that they are not inconsistent with this Ordinance²¹

23.3 The following provisions of the Governance Ordinance apply to the Cathedral Parish with modifications:

- (a) section 35 (which provides for the establishment of a Ministry Unit Council), as modified by section 11 of this Ordinance;
- (b) section 36 (which sets out the functions of a Ministry Unit Council), as modified by section 11 of this Ordinance;²²

24. Application of Parochial Property Ordinance

24.1 Except to the extent that it is inconsistent with this Ordinance, the Parochial Property Ordinance 1975 as in force from time to time applies to and in relation to the Cathedral and the Cathedral Parish.

¹⁸ Amended by Cathedral Amendment Ordinance 2006

¹⁹ Amended by Cathedral Amendment Ordinance 2006

²⁰ Amended by Cathedral Amendment Ordinance 2006

²¹ Amended by Schedule 11 of the Governance of the Diocese Ordinance 2000

²² Amended by Schedule 11 of the Governance of the Diocese Ordinance 2000

PART 11 – CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS, REPEAL AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

25. Consequential amendment of the Election of Canons Ordinance

25.1 The Election of Canons Ordinance is amended by:

- (a) omitting the first 3 paragraphs of the Preamble to that Ordinance, commencing with “WHEREAS by an Ordinance” and concluding “Diocese of Canberra and Goulburn”; and
- (b) omitting subparagraph 7(6) of the Schedule to that Ordinance and substituting the following subparagraphs:
 - “(6) If, in the final count for the election of a priest to an office of canon, 2 candidates have an equal number of votes, the clergyman senior in the Order of Priest’s orders shall be elected.
 - (6A) If, in the final count for the election of a lay person to an office of canon, 2 candidates have an equal number of votes, the returning officer shall decide by lot which shall be elected.”; and
- (c) omitting paragraph 8 of the Schedule to that Ordinance and substituting the following paragraph:

“8.If 2 or more priests are to be elected to an office of canon at the same session of synod, ballots shall be taken successively until all vacancies have been filled, the list of candidates being the same for each election except that the name of the candidate, or names of the candidates, already elected shall be excluded from the list.”.

26. Election of Lay Canon at the session at which this Ordinance is passed

26.1 An election of a lay person as a Canon may be held in accordance with the Election of Canons Ordinance at the session of Synod at which this Ordinance is passed.

26.2 For the purpose of subsection 26.1, the Bishop-in-Council is to be taken to have reported to the Synod on the first day’s business paper, in accordance with section 2 of the Election of Canons Ordinance, that such an election was required to take place during the session.

27. Repeal

27.1 The ordinances and provisions of ordinances set out in Schedule 2 are repealed.

28. Transitional provisions – The Chapter, Dean and Canons

28.1 The members of the Chapter holding office immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance continue to hold office as if they had been appointed or elected under this Ordinance.

28.2 The person holding office as Dean immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance continues to hold that office as if he had been appointed under this Ordinance.

28.3 The persons holding office as Canons immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance continue to hold those offices as if they had been appointed or elected under this Ordinance.

28.4 A former Canon who, immediately prior to the commencement of this Ordinance, had, with the approval of Bishop-in-Council, retained the title and precedence of a Canon continues to retain that title and precedence as if the approval had been given under subsection 19.2 of this Ordinance.

29. Transitional provisions – The Council and Wardens

- 29.1 Until the conclusion of the next annual electoral meeting of the Cathedral Parish, the Council as constituted under the repealed ordinances continues in existence and continues to exercise the powers and functions of the Council under those ordinances as if those ordinances remained in force.
- 29.2 The wardens holding office immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance continue to hold office until the conclusion of the next annual electoral meeting of the Cathedral Parish.
- 29.3 The provisions of the repealed ordinances apply to the filling of any casual vacancy occurring in the office of warden continued in force by subsection 29.2.
- 29.4 In this section “next annual electoral meeting of the Cathedral Parish” means the first annual electoral meeting of the Cathedral Parish held after this Ordinance comes into force.

SCHEDULE 1

30. Additional Dictionary

- 30.1 This clause defines further terms used in this Ordinance.
- 30.2 In this Ordinance, unless a contrary intention appears:
- “Canon” means a priest or lay person, as the case may be, who is elected or appointed as a Canon under section 16, but does not include an Honorary Lay Canon or a Canon in Residence²³;
- “Cathedral” means the Cathedral Church of St Saviour, Goulburn;
- “Cathedral Parish” means the Parish of St Saviour, Goulburn;
- “Chapter” means the Chapter constituted in accordance with section 5;

I – TRUSTS OF LAND, INCOME, GOVERNMENT AND MANAGEMENT OF CATHEDRAL.

*3. The Cathedral shall be called or known by the name of the Cathedral Church of St Saviour, Goulburn, and shall be used as the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of Canberra and Goulburn and as the Parochial Church of St Saviour in the City of Goulburn.

*4. The right of the Lord Bishop of Canberra and Goulburn hereinafter called “The Bishop”, to be the Ordinary of the Cathedral and to use it for any purpose in fulfillment of his office, and to appoint as his discretion any clergymen in the Holy Order of Priesthood to preach therein is hereby acknowledged and confirmed.

*5. The general management and government of the Cathedral in all matters relating to its religious and ecclesiastical affairs shall be vested in a body to be called “The Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Saviour, Goulburn”, and hereinafter called “The Chapter”.

*6. The general management of the financial affairs of the Cathedral Church, and of the Parish of St, Saviour, hereinafter called “The Cathedral Parish”, shall be vested in a body to be called “The Council of the Cathedral Church of St. Saviour, Goulburn, and hereinafter called “The Council”.

*7. The land included in the conveyance from William Pitt Faithfull to St. Saviour’s Trustees and dated the twentieth day of August, 1844, as also the land included in the Crown Grant dated the ninth day of May, 1842, with all the buildings thereupon, shall subject as hereinafter mentioned remain effectually vested in the Bishop, as sole Trustee, and shall be held by him upon Trust for the several purposes named in and subject to all the provisions of this Ordinance and free from the Trusts of the original grant; and as regards the land so conveyed by William Pitt Faithfull, for such purposes as the Bishop may from time to time appoint.

*8. All income derivable from the said lands and from the pew rents (if any) of the Cathedral Church as also the income to be received from St. Saviour’s Glebe lands and Trust moneys shall be applied and appropriated for the purposes named and in the manner provided for in this Ordinance.

*9. The building erected on the southern part of Crown Grant aforesaid, which is now commonly known as the Church Hall, shall be used and set apart as a Sunday School building in connection with the Cathedral parish, and for such Diocesan, Cathedral, Parochial or general purposes as the Incumbent of the Cathedral parish and the Council, with the approval of the Bishop, may think fit.

*10. The parcel of land situated on the northern side of the Cathedral, being apart of the Crown Grant aforesaid and having a frontage of one hundred and ninety-eight feet to Bourke Street with a depth of about two hundred and thirty-four feet through to Church Street, on which no building has hitherto been erected, may hereafter be used as the Bishop while continuing to act as sole Trustee of the said land and the Council may appoint, or should the Bishop have resigned such Trusteeship, as the Council with the approval if the Bishop may appoint.

XII – SITTINGS IN THE CATHEDRAL CHURCH

*60. The mode of allotting the said sittings at the first letting thereof shall be in accordance with the provisions of section VIII of the Act of 8 William IV, No. 5, except that the minimum subscription, entitling to priority of choice according to the amount of contributions, shall be one pound instead of 5 pounds, and the maximum number of sittings which may be allotted to any one subscriber shall, except as to schools, be twelve instead of six.

XIV – THE CATHEDRAL REVENUE

*64. In addition to the above mentioned sum of $600 per annum payable to the present Incumbent if the Cathedral Parish from the rents and profits of the Glebe and an additional sum of not less than $200 per annum shall be paid to the said Incumbent which shall be raised in manner following: - In accordance with the provisions of the first section of the Ordinance for the Sustentation of the Clergy 1871, and at the same time as the meeting hereinbefore appointed for the election of Parishioners' Wardens, a Finance Committee shall be appointed to co-operate with the Council for the time being in collecting a stipend Fund from such Parishioners of the Cathedral Parish and of any Parochial district which may be annexed thereto as may be willing to subscribe, the whole of which Stipend Fund shall be paid to the said Incumbent. On the death, resignation, incapacity or removal of the present Incumbent, the said Finance Committee shall, if the Council so determine, cease to be elected.

XV – ANNUAL ACCOUNTS

*67. The Council shall before the said date of the annual meeting every year, print and circulate an account of all receipts and expenditure for the preceding year duly audited and shall lay each account or accounts before the Synod of the Diocese at the next Session of such Synod.

XVI – MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

*68. All clergymen in the Holy Order of Priesthood, who are duly licensed by the Bishop and are attached to the Cathedral staff, shall for Synodical purposes be deemed to be clergymen licensed to a separate Cure of Souls within the Diocese, and be entitled to sit and vote as member's of the Synod of the Diocese.
